The View from Above the Close

Weather reports and other nonsense

It has been a summer to die for in New England. While other parts of the country have suffered from record high heat (107 in Little Rock, Arkansas this week, for one example) we've had warm days, cool nights and lots of summer rain.

Well, that's simply a weather report. It is a retelling of "what's happened" this summer in New England. One absolute truth about the weather is this: it'll happen, however it happens, with or without your effort or commitment or choices—or mine.

Weather reports are vaguely interesting. But the truth is that if you were alive, awake and outside, you already knew the "weather report."

What I want to share with you in this View has to do with anything but a "weather report." I want to talk about something that requires your effort, commitment and choice. What I want to talk about is "coming to church" on Sundays—every Sunday.

A half-century ago, "going to church" wasn't something people had any effort, commitment or choice about. Back then, in the 1950's, people simply went to church on Sunday. It was what people did. It was natural and habitual. It was as automatic as the weather report. People got up on Sunday morning and "went to church."

That's no longer true. Going to church isn't an automatic reaction these days. It isn't a habit most people have. There is only one other part of this huge nation where people "go to church" as seldom as they do in New England. In the Pacific northwest—Washington, Oregon and the northern most part of California—most people wake up on Sunday morning and do something else besides going to church. Going to church is still a "habit" in the South, Mid-West and South-West areas of the United States. But not here. Not here....

What I'm writing to tell you is this: you need to get up on Sunday morning and out of force of habit, get dressed and come to St. John's for the 8 a.m. or 10:15 a.m. Eucharist. And before it becomes a habit, it has to be the result of your effort, commitment and choice.

This Outrider is mailed monthly to all those folks we consider "active members" of St. John's and a few other folks. And if all of you who are reading this showed up on a regular, habitual basis, we'd have more than twice as many people in church every week.

Here's what I'm going to do, starting tomorrow. I'm going to write hand written invitations to come to church to three households a day—leaving out only those who already have the "habit" and are there weekly. Some of you will get your invitation before you read this. And some of you will get it after you read this. And I'm going to keep writing three invitations a day—21 a week—until I've written to everyone who we count as "active members" who aren't in church often enough.

I'm going to be more organized than I usually am and keep a list of those I sent an invitation to. And If I don't see you in a few weeks, I'm going to call you and ask you to tell me this: what would it take to get you in church each week?

You see, I really want to know why your seats are empty. And I'll do what I can to make it possible for you to be here. Not because of "my" needs, but because as your priest I am concerned with "your" needs. And one of the things you need is to worship regularly, giving back to God some small part of what God has given you.

The letters start tomorrow. If you haven't gotten one of those letters prior to reading this and you don't come to church regularly, then you could choose to come to church before you get my letter.

Here's a "weather report": a great number of St. John's members aren't in church on any truly regular basis.

It's my intention to do something about that or find out why I can't.

There's a pew with your name on it—come and fill it soon....

Shalom,

Jim

HARVEST FESTIVAL
SEPTEMBER 9, 2001

This fall we will welcome everyone back from summer and begin our new program year with a Harvest Festival. Popular throughout the Anglican communion, especially in England and the Caribbean islands, the Harvest Festival is a celebration of thankfulness and praise for all of God's gifts to us.

We invite you to bring the fruits of your garden - vegetables, flowers - or even weeds - to decorate the church.

Following the service we will have a festive coffee hour and present our bounty to the Soup Kitchen for use during the week.

PARISH RETREAT ALTERNATIVE

The parish retreat at Holy Cross Monastery is scheduled for the weekend of October 5, 6, and 7th. Hopefully many parish members will attend. However, for those unable to travel to West Park, New York, there is still an opportunity to share in this experience while remaining close to home.

Based on a retreat developed by Deacon Ron Cebik for a Massachusetts parish, Saint John's will conduct a parish wide experience that will touch and tap into the Holy Cross retreat. On Saturday, October 6th, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., members and friends will be invited to attend a retreat in the parish house led by Deacon Ron Cebik. The same theme will be explored by those attending Holy Cross and those attending Saint John's. Brother Bede from the Monastery and Deacon Ron will coordinate their efforts to enable participants to reflect and pray together.

Those unable to participate in either event will be provided a booklet of offices and prayers to be used at home that weekend thus allowing the total community to share in the parish retreat. The theme of the retreat will be central to both Eucharists on Sunday morning. More information will be available on Sunday mornings prior to the retreat.

ST. JOHN'S CENTER CAPE COD SEMINARS EXCEED EXPECTATIONS

This July, Saint John's Center for Spirituality and Ministry conducted two successful seminars at the Chapel of Saint James the fisherman in Wellfleet, Massachusetts. Each of the five day seminars met from 9 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. on Monday through Friday. The first, entitled Contemplative Resources, Finding Our Own Way to the Center, was led by Dr. John McDargh of Boston college, Dr. Ron Cebik of Saint John's, and Robert Werme, was held July 9-13th. Fifteen persons took part.

The second seminar focused on the art of preaching and was titled Radical Recreation: Preaching Worked as SPIRIT-Play. Dr. David J. Schlafer led seven preachers in a weeklong (July 15-20) in-depth look at their practice of sermon development and delivery.

This marked the second year that Saint John's Center has offered the Cape Cod Seminars on Spirituality. They are designed to provide persons with an opportunity to combine vacationing on the outer Cape with deepening their spiritual life. The Chapel of Saint James the Fisherman hosts the seminars as part of its ministry to the summer community of Cape Cod. Because of wide interest in the program, a special committee of persons from Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts is being formed to continue this venture started by Saint John's Center.

Saint John's Parish member Rick Clark has assisted Ron Cebik in the daily administration of the program in Wellfleet. If you are interested in knowing more about the future of this endeavor, contact Ron Cebik at Saint John's Parish (203) 754-3116.

WE WELCOME THE FOLLOWING
ST. JOHN'S PARISH
FAMILY...

STEPHEN ARBOGAST, SEMINARIAN

Stephen is originally from Pennsylvania. He is a second year Masters-of-Divinity student at Yale Divinity School. He is currently seeking ordination with the Diocese of Massachusetts. Before beginning his current studies, he spent five years in Benin (West Africa) where he taught management and organization at the National University of Benin. Earlier, he was a vice president with Goldman Sachs & Co., in Boston and New York.

MALINDA JOHNSON - INTERN

Malinda and her family reside in Westport, where she grew up. In fact, she now lives in the same house in which she was born and raised. Malinda met her husband, Krister, at divinity school from which they both graduated in 1988, with masters in theology. Malinda notes that after spending two additional years working on this Ph.D. in Religion, Krister became an airline consultant and now works in finance for GE Capital in Stamford - as she says, "Go figure". Malinda and her husband have been married for 12 years and have two children - Ingrid (8) and William (5).

After graduating from divinity school, she spent the next seven years working in social services and then the following four years mostly as a stay-at-home mom. Last year she served as chaplain (intern) at Greenwich Hospital.

Malinda notes that throughout their married lives, she and her family have been active at St. Paul's, Fairfield, her sponsoring parish. She formally entered the ordination process in 1991, was made a Postulant in 1992, and finally a Candidate this past April. She notes that discernment for this vocation has taken time. She looks forward to working with her "adopted" parishioners.

DIANE SANTANA PLATT, CHURCH SCHOOL CO-ORDINATOR

Diane has recently been hired as our new Church School Co-Ordinator. She brings with her experience from staff positions at two different churches. She has received certification from Hartford Seminary Associates in Christian Education.

Diane is married to husband John, and the couple have three children - Tanya (19), Katie (16) and Sean (11). They live in Southbury and are members of United Church of Christ in Southbury. Diane notes that she is actively involved with her children's Sunday School and youth fellowships.

Diane looks forward to the start of Sunday School and to meeting the parishioners and their children. She plans on introducing a new curriculum this year, The Whole People of God. The curriculum is based on the Lectionary. Each Sunday School class will be based on the Lectionary reading for that Sunday. Over the three year cycle of Lectionary, children will have covered lessons from the whole Bible. Teachers with whom Diane has worked with over the years have told her how much they like the curriculum and that it is user-friendly. Past teachers have shared with her how it has helped them to learn more about the Bible and grow in their own faith journey.

Diane looks forward to working with a team who will share their ideas, passions, dreams, and heart for the Lord with the children of St. John's. She wants everyone to feel welcome and to please stop and talk with her regarding new ideas. She also asks parishioners to share with her their special gifts and talents which might enhance the program for the children.

ADULT ED & CHURCH SCHOOL
REGISTRATION-OPEN HOUSE
SEPTEMBER 9TH - 9:00 A.M.

CALLING ALL SINGERS!

That's right - ALL SINGERS. St. John's Choir needs YOU. We have a wonderful choir, but we have lost seven members over the past three years. We have an excellent core of singers left, but we would like to have more; if you like to sing, this is an opportunity to make a difference. Make a difference for St. John's by helping to provide an important element of our corporate worship, and make a difference in your own life by involving yourself in an activity that I know you will find meaningful and rewarding. You don't need to commit to every week, so if you can participate only occasionally, don't let that stop you from coming.

The first rehearsal and service will be especially important and an excellent time to begin. The first service for the choir will be on September 9th when we will dedicate the new stained glass windows - the first to be added in over 100 years at St. John's. The anthem is appropriate for the occasion: "Eternal Light, Shine In My Heart" by a talented contemporary composer, K. Lee Scott. This anthem is also brand new, published just last year. We will devote most of the first rehearsal to learning it so that we can sing it at the service of dedication. It would be great to have a large choir to sing this wonderful new music. There will be refreshments for all at the end of the rehearsal.

If you have questions about becoming involved, please call me after Labor Day at (203) 577-4566, or leave a message for me at St. John's Office (203) 754-3116; I will return your call after Labor Day.

THE FIRST CHOIR REHEARSAL OF THE SEASON: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH, 7:30 P.M. IN THE CHOIR ROOM (above the Library).

Bob Havery

COMING IN OCTOBER....

If you like Bob Havery's organ music, mark your calendar - he will play a recital at St. John's on Sunday, October 14th at 3:00 p.m. The program will include some of Bob's favorite pieces by Du Mage, Bach, Brahms, and Durufle.

Many parishioners (or families and friends of parishioners) choose to mark the anniversary of a loved one's death by donating $25.00 toward the purchase of flowers for the altar. We list the names in the bulletin for the appropriate Sunday and, for those who are unable to attend church that day, we also list the names in the Outrider. We have a form in the Outrider that you can complete and send to the church office along with your check. Gert Payne also maintains a list of those who wish to purchase flowers every year. Gert can be contacted at 203-757-8481.

- 9/15 Jason Lanoie and Cathy Dunbar
- 9/29 Jason Sevas and Donna Kelly

Another way to mark important dates (such as birthdays, anniversaries or just thanksgivings) is to donate $10.00 toward the Bread and Wine for a given Sunday. We include a form for that purpose on the last page of this Outrider and list the donation in the appropriate Sunday bulletin.

Poem by Sarah Haines

Coming Home

Each Sunday, I come home
To the love of St. John's,
When I'm beyond,
T'is St. John's I long.

I hear this song,
In my heart,
Come home to me,
Stress cease,
Gently release,
Give me
Peace, inner peace.

When I enter the doors
I'm with thee,
Ever more,

Coming home,
I'm never alone.

Margaret Baranoski thanks everyone for their past support with craft projects however, regrestfully, she is discontinuing this program and asks parishioners to stop bringing items to the church.

The Women of St. John's will be holding a bake sale after service on Sunday, September 30, 2001 in the Auditorium. Please stop by to purchase or sample some delicious home made items baked by our dedicated members! All proceeds will benefit The Women of St. John's.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED FOR COFFEE HOUR!

We will be in need of helpers come September. If you can help one Sunday a month or even occasionally, please see Arlene Emmens (8 am service) or Eleanor Crean (10:15 service) or leave your name and number with the church office. Thanks!

Our Parish Secretary, Sue Pronovost, is a Notary Public and offers her services to our parishioners. Her request, in lieu of payment for notary services, is a $5 donation to the Soup Kitchen. Please call the church office if you have any questions or would like to make an appointment to come down to have something notarized

OUTREACH - TEAM 2000 SAFE HAVEN NEWS

Have you noticed that the days are already beginning to shorten? It's not quite as light early in the morning, and by 7:30 p.m., the darkness is almost complete. All the stores are stocked with back-to-school supplies, dark colored clothes and supplies for autumn shores. Fall is almost here. The September Team 2000 suggests the following donations that will perk up the beds of the women and children who are sheltered at Safe Haven:

September 9th: one new pillow or one new package of pillow cases or one bottle of shampoo.

Please note that any item of personal care and hygiene, as well as linens, detergent, diapers, baby food and cereal, and gently used newborn size onesies are always welcome and greatly appreciated.

You can rest assured that if you are unable to leave your donations on a designated 2nd Sunday, you can make your contribution at any time and it will be added to the current collection.

We are delighted to report that the summer donations were very generous. Many, many thanks for continuing to support these women monthly. This ministry is a blessing for all of us who participate and we welcome anyone who is interested in joining us.

Diane C. and Jan G.

Dear Friends of Safe Haven,

I want to thank you for the wonderful collection of underwear, socks, baby supplies, detergent, towels, diapers, and toiletries that you donated to Safe Haven for the months of May and June. Very often the women and children who come to us have had to leave behind most of their belongings. They are so pleased to learn of friends like you who are thinking about them and want to help. Although you will never have a chance to meet them, I can assure you that they are very grateful for your support. Thank you so much for another incredible donation. You are wonderful to us.

Peggy Panagrossi, Executive Director

Dear Friends of Safe Haven,

On Sunday morning, September 30th, Melitza Velez, the community education co-ordinator for Safe Haven, will be at St. John's between 9 am and 10 am to speak to us about the shelter and the vital work they do. She will also give us information about the vigil that will be held here at St. John's on Thursday evening, October 18th. Both of these programs are open to everyone. We hope to have as many people present as possible to show our support. October is National Domestic Violence Awareness Month. By wearing a purple ribbon and by being present at these programs, you can show your support to families in crisis. Thank you.

Jan Gurniak & Diane Caggiano

THE OUTREACH COMMITTEE WILL BE STARTING UP AGAIN ON SEPTEMBER 9TH. COME WITH NEW IDEAS! WE HOPE YOU HAD A GREAT SUMMER!

It's never too early to step up and volunteer to help in any way you can - don't wait to be asked.
