The Outrider

July 2010

Announcement from our Senior Warden

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

I have some exciting news to share. On Tuesday, June 8th, I was able to share with the Vestry our selection of The Rev. Norman MacLeod as our Interim Priest. In my presentation to the Vestry, there were so many things that excited me about Norman. He is energetic, passionate about the Episcopal Church and its liturgy, has strong communication and preaching skills and even wants to learn Spanish! Norman is excited about St. John's and what we do. He has strong managerial skills to help us continue our great work while we carry out the process of searching and selecting a permanent priest. We are working out the details of Norman's arrival July 7th and look forward to sharing those details with you soon..

About our Interim Priest

The Rev. Norman MacLeod comes to St. John's-on-the-Green as our Interim Priest after 2 years as the Interim Priest, of St. James Episcopal Church, Keene, NH. April, 2008 to June 2010. Prior to that he served more than ten years as Rector of Christ Church, Guilford, Connecticut. During that time, Christ Church had significant growth in membership, the Sunday School, stewardship and outreach. For the six years prior to his pastorate in Guilford, he served as Vicar of St. Augustine's Church in Kingston, Rhode Island, and as the Episcopal Chaplain at the University of Rhode Island.

He graduated from Yale Divinity School in 1989. Norman graduated with a degree in theatre from Clark University and received a Master's degree in education from Adelphi University, specializing in Waldorf education. Before going to divinity school, he worked in the fields of journalism and education.

His place of birth: Southington, Connecticut

Norman is married to Elizabeth C. Stevens. Elizabeth has a doctorate in American Studies from Brown University. Her dissertation was a biography of social activists Elizabeth Buffum Chace and her daughter Lillie Chace Wyman. The former was chosen as the first woman to be honored by a statue at the Rhode Island State House. Elizabeth's book was published in March, 2004.

Children: George, 27 (Bowdoin College, 2005); Jessie, 23 (Yale University, 2008), and Emily, 19 (Vassar College, 2012).

PASTORAL CARE

During this time of change, before St. John's has an interim priest, if there are any needs of a pastoral nature, i.e., hospital visits, counseling, confidential conversation with a priest or help of any kind, parishioners may contact Father Armando Gonzalez (cell phone: 1-860-202-5736), the senior warden, Scott Moore (cell phone: 203-232-0996) or the office (203-754-3116). Several priests, active and retired, have offered to be available to St. John's parishioners for pastoral needs and we also have our regular crew of Lay Eucharistic Ministers who visit the homebound or hospitalized. Please don't hesitate to call - your privacy will be respected and all requests will be confidential.

Padre Armando Gonzalez, Scott Moore, Sue Cromwell and Harriet Fötter

'We Learned How to Sing the Meaning of Music'

In this day and time it seems very hard to keep friends close forever. Just like Jim Bradley: he will be missed, but we have to move on with our lives knowing that things will get better here. As you can see today is Mrs. Coffin's last day of being our choir teacher. As the head chorister, I want to say that you will be missed. We appreciate all those six years that we got to enjoy with you. I can just remember my first time coming into choir. I wasn't really interested, but something about it made me come back for more. I really didn't know how to sing. To be honest, I didn't even know how to hold a piece of music paper. But look at us now. Our voices changed, and we learned how to sing the meaning of music. Music is my passion, and it always will be. Mrs. Coffin, you will not be forgotten. Your love and support have been appreciated. Please know that you will always be in our hearts and in our prayers. We want to wish you the best in life. I wish you could stay with us but it was your decision to move on with life, and we all accept it. The choristers will miss you a lot. You are one of a kind.

We love you, Mrs. Coffin, and we wish you the best.

-Diana Hernandez, Head Chorister

ESTA CAMBIANDO LA VIDA DE LA FAMILIA? (F. Armando González)

La vida de la familia cambia. Algunas veces los cambios son de forma. Otras veces son de contenido. Los cambios ocurren cuando hay cambios en la forma en que la sociedad vive. Esto se puede observar cuando individuos o familias cambian de un medio socio-cultural a otro diferente.

Por ejemplo, las familias que se desarrollan en países de América Latina, típicamente son más numerosas, son más unidas y solidarias, y tienden a preservar sus tradiciones. Los cambios que ellas experimentan son muy lentos y se dan mayormente en áreas urbanas.

Un ejemplo dramático es el que ofrece una familia o individuo que emigra de un área rural a una ciudad. En el campo la familia experimenta una dependencia de los frutos de la tierra que la misma familia produce, y la contribución de animales domésticos. Los hijos son criados y educados un poco por la escuela rural, pero mayormente por la fuerza social de las costumbres y tradiciones religiosas. En la ciudad la familia va a iniciar una fase de aprendizaje, reconociendo el medio ambiente y aprendiendo a desarrollar nuevas habilidades que el medio urbano le ofrece. Por ejemplo: trabajar como vigilante, trabajar un jardín, limpiar zapatos, limpiar carros, vender productos por las calles, limpiar casas, trabajos en la construcción, en el transporte de carga, los alimentos, etc., son las nuevas posibilidades que se le presenta a la familia.

Ese cambio de ambiente, crea en la familia nuevas formas de vida que usualmente no acostumbraban en su antiguo medio social. Cambian sus ideas acerca de su propio futuro, y en forma inevitable su vida social se vuelve más activa en defensa de sus intereses. Tratan de mejorar su educación, de tener menos hijos, y de buscar nuevas oportunidades.

Otro ejemplo no menos dramático es cuando emigramos de un país de América Latina a un medio cultural diferente; especialmente si en ese medio cultural el idioma es diferente. Este podría ser nuestro caso. Ser familia emigrante de primera generación implica rápida adaptación de cada uno de sus miembros, asimilando idioma, costumbres y formas de vida. También hay emigrantes de primera generación con hijos que nacen aquí. Para estos dos tipos de familia, la clave para la superación progresiva es el dominio del idioma.

Cuanto más rápido se domine el idioma, más rápido será el progreso. Los datos revelan que los niños que experimentan con programas bilingües atrasan su progreso, en comparación a otros que no participan de ese programa. La lengua materna en el hogar es importante y los padres pueden dedicar tiempo para estar con sus hijos y al mismo tiempo enseñarles su idioma.

Además, los niños en un medio como este, se convierten en verdaderos e insustituibles recursos para que los padres puedan aprender o mejorar no solo el idioma Inglés sino también el conocimiento que ellos tienen como traductores para los padres, o como usar la Internet, los teléfonos celulares con todas ventajas. Por eso el "Urban Dictionary tiene una frase que describe esa situación: Child assistance, "niño ayudante de adultos". Si usted tiene a su hija/hijo que va a la escuela y tiene servicio de Internet deje que sea su guía en ese campo. Usted se asombrará.

Aquí en nuestro medio la familia Latinoamericana, está cambiando. Y debemos trabajar mucho más para que esos cambios sean para el mejor futuro de nuestros hijos. Eso requiere esfuerzo y sacrificio. Además, piense por un momento que no estamos solos en esa tarea. Dios está con nosotros.

THE LIBRARY

The librarian is on vacation until the end of September. Please save books you wish to donate until the fall. You may still borrow books over the summer. Please write the title and your name in the log book on the library cart. Thanks and happy summer reading.

June 20 Liturgical Supplies $

At its April 2009 meeting, the Finance Council decided to implement a schedule of second collections on selected Sundays in order to raise funds for items which either have no budget or are over budget. It is our hope that parishioners will be generous in support of this endeavor. If you want credit for the second offering, please use a check or use one of the envelopes that are in the church and put your name on it.

Did you know...

St. John's Episcopal Church has raised $410.00 on OneCause

Five Summer Tips for Cause Supporters

OneCause is a way of shopping online and having them donate a portion of your purchase to St. John's. It doesn't cost the shopper anything. If you haven't joined OneCause yet, its easy. Please pick up one of the flyers that are in the back of the church or on the hallway table.

The team at OneCause wishes you a happy and safe summer vacation. We hope you have plenty of time to renew and reconnect with family and friends. Before you take off, we just have a few ways you can continue to help St. John's Episcopal Church during the summer months.

- 1. Start your travel purchases at OneCause - You'll find all of your favorite travel merchants offering the latest deals at OneCause. Plus, shop Delta now to earn a 2% contribution!
- 2. Remember to shop our seasonal gift guide - You'll find gifts for everyone on your list, and you'll earn contributions on every purchase.
- 3. Get books (or e-books!) for summer reading - Whether reading Kindle, NOOK or a good old fashion book, you'll find plenty of literary escapes among our books and magazines merchants. If you want to go digital, Barnes & Noble.com is now offering a free $50 gift card when you buy the NOOK eReader (expires 7/3/2010).
- 4. Post a link to OneCause on your Facebook profile - If you're on Facebook, post a link to OneCause and encourage your friends and family to support St. John's Episcopal Church.

Training in Martial Arts Can Change the Futures of At-Risk Youth Lives

Why do I consider Martial Arts a part of life at Saint John's? Martial Arts training is not only self-defense. It is a structured environment and involves discipline both emotionally and physically while teaching self-awareness to young minds. Out of this self-awareness, self-esteem, self-respect and self-control are the byproducts. This translates into insight and tolerance at an age where peer pressures and poor choices can have a lifelong impact.

I have always thought that spirituality is about being self reflective, thoughtful, and tolerant of our fellow human beings, and that is the message I got from Sensei Troy Bond. During my meeting with Sensei Troy he told me the message delivered to his students is work hard, try your best in school and listen to your parents, as well as behave at home and school. Just imagine giving a child who feels that they have no control over themselves and their situation an opportunity to be part of a structured program where unity, peace, danger, caution, strength, loyalty, respect, honor, discipline, self-control, and responsibility are the mission.

While the title of my narrative is "Training in Martial Arts Can Change the Futures of At-Risk Youth Lives" this is a program open to all the youth of Saint John's. Being a parent of 4, I cannot imagine a child in today's world that could not use an environment where self-awareness, self-esteem and self-respect and self-control are taught. Why not share that message with our children in their church? How cool is it that we can let our kids build community amongst themselves and have fun too.

Scott Moore, Senior Warden

When: Mondays and Wednesdays from 5:00PM until 6:00PM.

Where: The auditorium at St. John's.

Who: Children from 4 to 104!

How: Just show up and try it out.

Why: Build a better future.

Today is Father's Day as I write. I remember my Dad calling me "a good kid" and today I am calling you "good kids". For Luke, CCI and myself, I send to Peg Cormack, Monica Tiso, Ted & Pat Bojarski, Doris Hollenstein, Bob Baranoski and so many others, our heartfelt thanks for remembering Luke to CCI. I cannot explain the benefit you have provided for an "exceptional dog and an exceptional disabled person" That is the motto of Canine Companions for Independence and describes perfectly what you have done with your support. I am pleased to tell you that I will be going to CCI Training to get my new friend the first 2 weeks of August. Know that we will not be allowed to socialize with everyone for a few weeks after we return, as we will need to learn all about each other before we can socialize. Perhaps we will be ready by October and then "our" new friend will become a "parishioner" too. May God bless you all for what you have shared in Luke's name.

Altar Flowers

St. John's Flower Ministry has modified the way altar flowers are dedicated on each Sunday. Altar flower offerings of nature's beauty are acts of worship that enhance the liturgical seasons, provide beauty to God's altar, and express our love of God's creation in all seasons.

The Flower Ministry has issued an "open call", if you will, for anyone to have altar flowers donated in memory of a loved one, regardless of the amount donated.

On this page are three forms to fill out: one form if you just want to make a general donation to the altar flower fund, a second form for those who wish their loved one(s) to be remembered in the Prayers of the People, and a form for Communion Bread and Wine offerings.

Prayer List Requests

All names will remain on the prayer list for four weeks. If you need to have that time extended, please contact the church office at 203-754-3116. Names can be added to the prayer list by phone or you can fill out this form and return it to the office.

Please add the following name(s) to the prayer list:
